President's Award

This year's Greek Week results saw Eta Chapter with a 3rd place overall, an improvement from last year's 6th place overall. Arguably more important, Eta was awarded the ISU President's Award for Fraternal Excellence!

Branstad LFTB Event

Governor, and Honorary Brother, Terry Branstad visited Iowa State Tuesday, April 10th, for an informational event about Lean, Finely Textured Beef (LFTB) held in Kildee Pavilion. Branstad was guest speaker, along with Congressman Steve King, and others. Eta members grilled outside of Kildee and had a great representation at the event.

VEISHEA is Here!

Starting Sunday, ISU's campus will be coming alive with the annual VEISHEA celebration. As in previous years, Eta Chapter represents strong participation on the VEISHEA Executive Board, as well as at the committee level, for over 65% overall participation. Please come support the AGR Food Stand, across from Beardshear Hall, where we'll be grilling burgers and more!

Who But Paul Rhoads?

Wednesday, April 11th, Eta Chapter had the honor of having our very own Head Football Coach, Paul Rhoads, for dinner. He talked about the joy of being back in Iowa, and provided a preview of the upcoming season.
