

ETA Members in DC

This semester brothers Andrew Lauver "2061" and Grant Bargfrede "2089" are interning in Washington DC with Senator Chuck Grassley. Andrew is a Legislative Intern. His main responsibilities are to research issues pertaining to new bills and current legislation. He works closely with Grassley's assistants and correspondents on a daily basis. Grant is an Administrative Intern. His responsibilities include assisting with office scheduling, providing constituents with tours and scheduling appointments for them with the Senator. He works closely with Grassley's scheduler daily.

Winter Eta Crescent

The active chapter would like to apologize for the latest "Crescent" and its untimely arrival. We had some issues with our printing company as well as getting the "Crescent" completed on time. We are working to fix these issues and won't have any more problems with future "Crescents."
