Tours Overview

Greetings to our AGR women;

We are pleased that you are joining us for the AGR 100 Year Celebration. In order to facilitate our numbers we are asking you to indicate your preference for tours as number limits for the tours are necessary. These options are available to you if you wish to participate in the tours.

During Saturday morning you will be joining the men for the tours on campus. You can learn more about these on the other E-Newsletter attached and if you are going to join your AGR spouse/friend please have him indicate that two people will be attending. On Saturday afternoon, the women are welcome to sit in on the Ag Roundtables. However, you are welcome to enjoy one of the tour options below. We intend to shuttle you to and from your destination loading at the Hansen Learning Center. Most of the tours will be approximately 1 hour. Departure times are tentative at this time.

Saturday Afternoon Women's Tours:

The Knoll and Brunnier Art Museum--ISU President's home which is located on campus. This home is used for entertaining guests as well as serving as the private home for our president and has been renovated to when President Beardshear lived there. Mrs. Leath will be conducting this tour. The second stop will be the Brunnier Museum where you will be able to leisurely enjoy the gallery. No guided tour. If you are a Quester, this is an opportunity to enjoy the Quester Glass Collection. 2PM tour with two points of interest. Limited to 50 women.

The Knoll-- ISU President's home which is located on campus. Mrs. Leath will be conduct the tour. 2:30 PM tour. After the tour, you will return to the Hansen Learning Center for leisure time. 30 minute tour.

The ISU Alumni Center---The alumni center is located on Beach between the ISU Center and the ISU Stadium. This building is filled with ISU history and decorated with artifacts from across campus. Jeff Johnson, CEO of the Alumni Association will be conducting the tour. One hour in length, unlimited number. Time of departure to be determined but approximate time will be 2:15 PM.

Prairie Moon Winery---This tour offers the opportunity for wine tasting only. There will be no tour of the facility. No further details as they are closed for the winter months. Departure time 1:30 PM.

Brunnier Art Museum ---"Visions Across America." This will be a guided tour featuring portraits of ISU alumni in all 50 states as Jim Heemstra, ISU photographer, and Carole Gieske, writer/editor traveled across the US to learn more about them. They had no idea how emotionally tied they would become to the alumni as they learned the diversity, strength, and character of the ISU alumni. One hour tour, 2PM planned departure.
