Homecoming 2014

This Issue Homecoming Agger Fries

Brothers,

We are very pleased to announce the success of another Eta Homecoming. Many brothers were able to come back to 201 Gray for the annual homecoming festivities. This year a meal was served and Nobel Ruler Chance Weise gave a chapter update. The annual scholarships were awarded and the first awards of the Legacy Fund were presented. Over $40,000 was presented total to undergraduate brothers from this over $32,000 was from the Legacy Fund which was awarded to 30 students. Brother John Bonner spoke at the event on behalf of the Legacy Fund where he encouraged alumni and undergraduate members to leave their own legacy. John gave a plaque to the house as a visual reminder for undergraduates to achieve daily.

During the weeks before Homecoming the undergraduate chapter has been busy preparing for Yell Like Hell and Lawn Display. Members are able to get involved with these competitions as well as tournaments, olympics, store front window, victory lane, and banner. We competed well in many events and had a great time as brothers and members of the Greek Community.

Agger Fries have been a staple of Eta history for years. Recently the chapter has transformed to use the tasty snack idea as a philanthropy. This year we served 633 students, which is up from 430 last year. At the event customers have the chance to register for Iowa State University's Relay For Life free of charge. Students are able to eat Agger Fries, fried Oreos, fried cheese balls, and more. The event was a huge success and raised over $2550 to support the American Cancer Society.

The pictures show various stages of Lawn Display, Yell Like Hell preparation, Banner, the Homecoming Reception, and Agger Fries.
