Moms Weekend

On February 3rd-4th, the chapter hosted the annual Moms Weekend. The weekend was filled with activities for the over 70 mothers in attendance, and was highlighted by the annual Mothers Day Auction. The auction was a huge success by raising $10,000 for the Moms Auxiliary fund.

Founders Day 2018

Thank you to all that attended the 2018 Eta Chapter Founders Day! At the ceremony this spring, we heard a state of the chapter address from Noble Ruler Cale Gent. He highlighted special accomplishments that Eta Chapter has received throughout the past year such as national awards, homecoming, undergraduate brother achievements, and introduced the 2018 executive council. The program also included awarding alumni brothers for their continued dedication and support to Alpha Gamma Rho. We concluded the day with the ribbon cutting ceremony for the 2nd Century Project. The day was highlighted by speeches by President Wendy Wintersteen, Associate Dean Dr. David Acker, and AGR North Central Regional Vice President Dan Johnson. Brothers Mike Nissly and Shamus Brown were also awarded for all of the work that they put into this project throughout this past year. Special congratulations to the following brothers:

25-Year Testimonial - Glenn W. Fuhr

50-Year Testimonial - Arlen Wonderlich

Alumni Achievement Award - Kenneth D. Isley

Agricultural Leadership Award - Mark A. Stutsman and Scott R. Stutsman

30th Years of Service Award - Paul Heineman

Varieties 2018: "A Tripp to Remember"

During Iowa State's 87th annual Varieties competition the men of Alpha Gamma Rho participated in Pairing F, "A Tripp to Remember". Our team consisted of the women of Chi Omega, Sigma Kappa, and the men of Sigma Phi Epsilon. Our team advanced onto the finals and will be performing on February 23rd and 24th in hopes of winning another Varieties for Alpha Gamma Rho.
