Happy Thanksgiving!

Happy Thanksgiving to you and your family from the men of Eta Chapter! We celebrated Thanksgiving a little early last Tuesday with the women of Sigma Alpha. Chef Mike Clem treated over 120 meal attendees to several traditional Thanksgiving foods. The menu included four massive turkeys from the ISU Meat Lab. Can you guess how big they were?!

Reply to this email with your guess of our average turkey weight this year. The respondent with the closest guess will win a t-shirt from our next philanthropy, and we'll mail it anywhere in the country!

First Place in Lawn Display

The highly anticipated return of lawn display was just as exciting as expected. On the Friday of homecoming week, our men took home the first place trophy in tough competition with the men of FarmHouse, Pi Kappa Phi, and Tau Kappa Epsilon. This year's lawn display theme was a spinoff of the children's TV show Spongebob Squarepants. Cy was traveling by sea to the football game when he was shipwrecked and landed in the Bikini Bottom. With help from Spongebob and company, Cy was able to find the spirit of Iowa State, beat Tex the Red Raider, and make it back to Ames in time for the big homecoming game. A special thanks goes out to all of the men that contributed to the final product. The bar has been set very high, but we as we look forward to groundbreaking next fall, we know the future is bright!
